

Princeton University Outdoor Action Climbing Program

Application for Lead Certification

Any person wishing to take the lead certification test without first participating in the Outdoor Action Lead Climbing Clinic must demonstrate baseline capabilities before the testing day. In particular, the applicant must attend a regular open hours session and climb a route of difficulty 5.8 or harder on top rope. They must also describe adequate previous lead climbing experience.

---

Applicant Information:

Name: _____ Year: _____ PUID#: _____

Demonstration of Climbing Ability:

Name of Route/Grade: _____

Witness by Wall Staffer: _____ Date: _____

Previous Leading Experience:

In the space below, please summarize your lead climbing experience in the past 2 years (sport and/or trad). You can include location, grade, and duration/frequency of trips. If you believe there are relevant details not included in the 2-year period, you may include those as well: